The African Union Commission presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia and Permanent Missions of all Member States and, would like to inform them that following consultations between the Commission and the Government of South Africa, the Africa Diaspora Summit that was scheduled to hold in Johannesburg, South Africa, has been postponed due to reasons of matters of state in South Africa. Consequently the meeting of the PRC scheduled to take place on 26th September 2008 has also been postponed.

The Commission wishes to express regrets for any inconvenience that the change might have caused, and would communicate new dates for the Summit as soon as they are concluded.

The Commission avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia and Permanent Missions of all AU Member States of the African Union the assurances of its highest consideration.
